

POWER BI 30 DAYS COURESE

Microsoft Excel Beginners To Advance Exams

1-Excel Introduction-Exam

Q1. What is the shortcut key to go to the last column (XFD) in Excel?

Answer:

Ctrl + Right Arrow

Easy Meaning:

Moves the cursor to the last used column or to column XFD if no data exists.

---

Q2. Which part of Excel displays the address of the currently selected cell?

Answer:

Name Box

Easy Meaning:

The Name Box shows the selected cell reference.

Example:

A1

B5

C10

---

Q3. How many rows are available in one Excel worksheet?

Answer:

10,48,576 Rows

Easy Meaning:

An Excel worksheet contains 1,048,576 rows.

---

Q4. What is the shortcut key to edit the content of an active cell?

Answer:

F2

Easy Meaning:

F2 allows you to edit the data inside the selected cell without double-clicking.

---

Q5. What is the shortcut key to insert a new worksheet?

Answer:

Shift + F11

Easy Meaning:

Creates a new worksheet instantly.

---

Interview Questions*Q1. What is the last column in Excel?

Answer:

The last column in Excel is XFD.

---

Q2. What is the use of the Name Box?

Answer:

The Name Box shows the address of the currently selected cell.

---

Q3. How many columns are available in Excel?

Answer:

16,384 columns (A to XFD).

---

Q4. How many rows are available in Excel?

Answer:

10,48,576 rows.

---

Q5. What is the shortcut key to edit a cell?

Answer:

F2.

---

Q6. What is the shortcut key to insert a new worksheet?

Answer:
Shift + F11.

---

Quick Revision

| Question             | Answer             |
|----------------------|--------------------|
| Last Column          | XFD                |
| Last Column Shortcut | Ctrl + Right Arrow |
| Rows in Excel        | 10,48,576          |
| Columns in Excel     | 16,384             |
| Cell Address Display | Name Box           |
| Edit Cell            | F2                 |
| New Worksheet        | Shift + F11        |